DROPS DEAD IN NORWICH STORE

Suddenly seized with a heart attack, Albert G. Kneeland of Lebanon, where he was formerly probate judge, died almost instantly Monday morning about 10 o'clock as he entered the Brockton Sample Shoe store, at 133 Main street. Benjamin Alexander and Louis Mintz who were in the store at the time, struck him and carried him to the street, where he died. Dr. T. T. Cassidy, who pronounced Mr. Kneeland dead, upon his arrival. Medical Examiner Dr. G. C. Childers was called and pronounced death due to angina pectoris and gave permission to Henry Allen & Sons to remove the body to their undertaking rooms.

Judge Kneeland and his wife left Lebanon Monday morning to do some shopping. Upon reaching the city he left his wife in the automobile and started out to make several purchases. It was believed that the shoe store was his first stop as a memorandum was headed by "sample shoes."

His sudden death came as a shock to many who knew him and Lebanon has lost a valuable citizen.

Mr. Kneeland is survived by his wife, two sons, William A. and Warren M. Kneeland, both of Hartford; a granddaughter, Jeanette Kneeland; a sister, Mrs. William Loomis of Meadville, Me., and a brother Henry Kneeland of Columbia.

Secretary Robert Brooks of the Taftville Soccer team has completed negotiations with Clifford Brockton, manager of the Patri-Artic football club of Andover, R. I., for a game to be played on local grounds next Saturday. Soccer fans in this section of the state know something of the reputation of the Patri-Artic team in the football world, as they are considered the whirlwinds of the Pawtuxet valley, and are now standing second in the Pawtuxet Valley Soccer league, and giving the first team a close race. They also have the reputation of having a sportsy bunch of supporters and they have promised to bring about one hundred of these fans to help swell the crowd. Manager Thomas Parsons has scraped up some good games to oppose them, and the fight will no doubt be an interesting sight from the minute the game gets under way. Local fans will no doubt turn out in good numbers to witness these veterans of the Pawtuxet Valley in action.

Work is well underway for the entertainments for the annual fair which is to be given by the Taftville Congregational church. The entertainment committee have announced that the first night a comedy or drama will be presented, while the second night a vaudeville show will be presented. At a meeting Sunday of the officers and members of the Sunday school, committees were appointed to have charge of the two booths so that the school will operate at the fair.
